WESTERN TURF WAR OFFICIALLY DECLARED AT AN END.

Rival Tracks at New Orleans Reach an Agreement Here by Which Each Will Have the Same Number of Days Next Winter-Maybe Sport in Chicage, Toc.

The Western turf war is at an end. At a meeting between representatives of the Western Jockey Club and the American Turf Association held vesterday at the Hote Manhattan peace was formally declared. By the terms of an agreement formally signed d sealed the rival tracks at New Orleans next winter will operate in harmony. They will alternate with meetings every two weeks. City will be eligible to start. At yesterday' City will be eligible to start. At yesterday a meeting the Western Jockey Club was represented by John Condon, Louis Cella and Bud Renaud, while the interests of the American Turf Association were looked after by . Barnes, representing Edward Corrigan and Renaud put their signatures to the peace agreement, which means, no doubt, that racing will soon get a new start in Chicago and other Western cities. It is not improbable that the rival turf bodies will be consolidated in due time, with the idea of con-ducting racing affairs in the West on more usinesslike lines. Last winter the turf war raged all along the line. City Park and the Fair Grounds at New Orleans raced all winter on a schedule of con-Both sides lost thousands of dollars rather than surrender. But last spring it was rumored that the Louisiana Legislature might step in with a law against betting and poolselling unless the fight was stopped, so negotiations were begun by mutual peacemakers (which ended successfully peacemakers which ended successfully yesterday. Condon and Corrigan, always bitter enemies, were responsible for the costly warfare. At one time they declared that they stood ready to go stone broke in a struggle to a finish for supremeoy; but after paying out fabulous sums to foot the bills in the senseless strife their friends prevailed upon them to look at the matter rom a strictly business point of view. The Fair Grounds had a monopoly in New Orleans until City Park cut in. Now, on an amicable basis, both tracks will probably make money, for a majority of the horsemen, in view of the expected let down on the Coast, will probably race at the Crescent City. With the Condon and Corrigan forces under-standing each other, it was said last night that a move would soon be made to open the Hawthorne and Harlem tracks in the Windy City next year.

C. C. Smithson, owner of Bobble Kean, has made a complaint to the Brighton stewards relative to the recent manipulation of his horse in the race which brought about the suspension of Jockey Bell. In that affair Bobbie Kean was beaten five lengths by Maxnar. The former took up eleven pounds more in the fifth race yesterday, while Maxnar's burden was increased by while Maxnar's burden was increased by nine. Yet Kean, running to his best form, beat Maxnar by about four lengths. Before this performance? m theon said:

"If Bobbie Kean peats Maxnar there will be trouble for that whole gang."

It appears that Smithson has told the stewards his belief that Bell took his horse up acting under some sort of orders from O. W Deppeler, his manager, who was formerly identified with John J. Ryan's get rich quick schemes. Smithson believes that there is some connection between Deppeler and the books which, it is alleged, laid against a flagrantly bad manner. Deppeler, on the other hand, declares that he has never had any dealings with the Cella gang and that as far as he knows Bell did his best with Kean. Smithson states that Deppeler bet heavily on Kean the day the latter beat Logistilla but that Deppeler didn't bet a dollar on Kean when Bell rode the race that caused the boy's suspension. The stewards are investigating the matter with much energy.
Dr. J. Grant Lyman, attired in a conspicuous blue suit of clothes, with an equally conspicuous blue band around his natty hat, stood near the paddock rail just before the fifth race and handed out a bunch of yellowbacks to several hustling betting agents. This money was placed on the doctor's Geranium, who was backed down to 6 from 10. The real coup in this race, however, went through with Rubric, owned by Ed Gaylord and trained by H. E. Rowell, The Mirthful horse was backed from 10 down to 4 and came home on the bit. Rubric re-ceived twenty-four pounds from Kean and was well ridden by Sandy, a new jockey in the East, who comes from California with an excellent reputation.

Clovercrest, the winner of the first race was saddled by the veteran trainer, Con Leighton, whose last winner on the Eastern tracks was put over in 1894. Leighton in his time has handled some famous horses, including Banquet, Tea Tray, Torsa, Ajax and Chaos, a Futurity winner. He was the trainer at different times for Congressmen W. L. Scott and Jacob Ruppert. Clover-crest was widely tipped and made good in cracking fast time. The cott had not raced since last summer, when he went wrong. Leighton was sure of success and told his friends to bet on the good thing in spite of the fact that Oyama, the favorite, had worked six furlongs in better than 1:13 for this race.

A. S. Snyder's Snow King was named as a starter in the first race and a jockey had weighed out when it was discovered that the horse was not at the track. As a result

Trainer John Cook was ordered by the stew-ards to pay a fine of $25 for his forgetfulness. J. T. Muir's Music Box was played from 100 down to 15 in the first event only to run nex to last. H. B. Duryea's Fire Brand was played liberally across the board, as was Miss Ogden, who was third at long odds. The books kept thousands that were poured into the ring on Oyama.

The ring won heavily on the second race, as big money was lost on Vox Populi and Arcite, more than enough to make up for the coin won on Kentucky Beau. Vox Populi did not want to go to the post, and apparently sulked all through the race. Penarris, who ran second, carried the colors of the former jockey, Frank O'Neill, for the first time since the latter's retirement from the saddle to be-come an owner. The colt was trained for the race by Fred Burlew, who won the $7,500 Iroquois with Samson. The performance of Samson, by the way, was a form reversal, as the Sainfoin colt could not get out of his own way in a race at the Beach on July 20. He had absolutely no speed on that occasion vesterday he was a much different horse and was master of the situation at all stages. Previous winners of the Iroquois were Watercolor. Old England, Fire Eater, St. Valentine and Sysonby, who won it in 1904 and 1905. Those who remembered Kuroki's performance in the Brighton Handicap when, because of soreness, he did not frun a lick, passed him

The poolroom agents refused to be thwarted by a canvas screen which was hoisted yes-terday in front of a house behind the backstretch in which there were a couple of telegraph intsruments. The agents climbed to the roof, where, with powerful telescopes, they were able to see the finish of each race. The canyas screen must be raised if the view is to be complytely shut off.

President May Overton of the Tennessee Breeders' Association was at the track yeaterday. He said that in spite of adverse legislation he felt confident that the sport in nis State would soon be on a sound basis again.

Yowric, the winner of the sixth race, appeared to be such a high class youngster that when he was offered at auction after the race for $1,500 Joe Marrone bid him up to $2,500. Then W. A. McKinney, popularly known as "But in," raised the figures to $2,600, whereat Trainer McDaniel bid an extra $5 and retained the son of Alloway. Yowric was well backed by the Western bunch at $ to 1 and proved a bitter pill for the plungers who placed big bundles on Somnus, the favorite. Somnus carried more money than any of the other choices that went down to defeat during the aftersoon, the whole clubhouse going to the son of Peep O'Day with remarkable confidence. The defeat of this supposed sure thing, who is said to be owned by Dave Gideon, was a gold mine for the books.

BAMSON WINS THE IROQUOIS. Fred Burlew's Colt Defeats Dwyer's Albert F.

Six out of seven favorites were beaten at Brighton Beach yesterday and the ring won a ton of money. The Keene Stable furnished three of the defeated first choices, Kuroki, Vox Populi and Oyama, all ridden by Radtke, who came down from Saratoga to take the mounts. Kuroki, who went to the post sore was a receding favorite for the $7,500 Iroquois

Stakes for three-year-olds, one mile and a quarter, his price going back from 4 to 5 to 6 to 5. P. J. Dwyer's Albert F. was the medium for a play that reduced him from 8 to 1 to 11 to 5, while at the last moment Fred Burlew's Samson, 14 to 5, was a magnet for much educated coin. At the start Shaw took Samson to the front. The Sainfoin colt was full of running and was never really extended. He stalled off Albers F, and Kuroki through the last half mile and won by a length in 2:07. Kuroki stopped badly at the head of the stretch, but Albert F. went on and took the place by two and a half lengths from Green Morris's Flimnap, a 40 to 1 shot.
Vox Populi, a colt by Voter—Dorset Flower Vox Populi, a colt by Voter—Dorset Flower, made his first start in the second race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furiongs, being a steady favorite at 2. But he was outrun all the way and was badly beaten. Woodford Clay's Kentucky Beau, 18 to 5, second holice, on the other hand, cut out a swift pace and came home on the bit with five lengths to spare in 1:08 2-5. Frank O'Neill's Penarris, 6 to 1, ran into the place two lengths before Barney Schreiber's Tony Bonero, 15 to 1.

Penarris, $ to 1, ran into the place two lengths before Barney Schreiber's Tony Bonero, 18 to 1.

Oyama was backed down to 7 to 5 in the first race, for maidens at six furiongs, but like Yox Populi he finished nowhers. Mr. Earle's Clovercrest, 16 to 5 second choice, after a hard duel with H. B. Duryea's Firebrand, 15 to 1, beat the latter handily by a length in 1:12 4-5. Miss Ogden, 12 to 1, was third, a length back.

There was nothing to the third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, but Belle of Pequest, 5 to 5 favorite, who went to the front at the three-quarter pole and just breezed home three lengths in front of Water Tank, 7 to 2 second choice. Lone Hand, third in favor, was a length back. The time was 1:47 4-5.

Rubric, backed down to 4, won the handicap at a mile and a sixteenth. A long delay at the post hurt the chances of Bobbie Kean, the top weight, who went up to 4. The latter broke in front, but Rubric passed him in the middle of the backstretch and beat him in a gallop by four lengths in 1:43 3-5. Geranium, played from 10 down to 6, was third, three lengths behind, with Maxnar, the favorite, in fourth place, after a poor showing.

William Gerst's Kowric, 5 to 1, came to life in the sixth race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs, and after setting a fast pace won in a romp by four lengths from the heavily backed favorite, Bomnus, who was second all the way. Clements, 5 to 1, got up in time to take third money from Royal Breeze, 4 to 1, by a head. The time was 1:06 3-5.

But for an accident at the start which caused him to lose many lengths F. A. Forsythe's Riffeman, 16 to 5, might have won the last race, also for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. As it was he was not far away from the money at the end of the trip. John E. Madden's Mintberia, 4 to 1, with Alex up, won this event in a drive by three parts of a length from Bill Daly's Umbrella, 15 to 1, with Flowaway, 10 to 1, third. Al Powell, 11 to 5 favorite, was alength out of the money. The time was 1:07 3-5. About 16,000 persons were

ENTRIES FOR THE KING'S CUP.

Eight Fast Yachts Already Named as Starters for the New Trophy. Eight entries have already been made for the race for the King's cup, which is to be sailed on the cruise of the New York Yacht Club off Newport on August 8. These are J. Rogers Maxwell's schooner Queen, W. S. Eaton's schooner Taormina, Arthur F. Luke's schooner Corona, Harry L. Maxwell's sloop Yankee, Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt's Yankee, Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt's sloop Rainbow, H. F. Lippitt's sloop Weetamee, E. D. King's sloop Neola and Cleveland H. Dodge's cutter Hester. The rating of all these yachts, except that of the Queen, have been filed, and as measurements must be filed before the race, the entry of the Queen is not considered complete. The Taormina is a new schooner and her rating is 61.29. The ratings of the Hester is 59.33. The ratings of the other yachts are well known, as they have been racing regularly.

The entries for this race will close at 10 o'clock at the town house of the New York Yacht Club on August 5 and at the Newport station at 10 A. M. on August 6. Measurements must be filed at the time of making the entry and no yacht will be allowed to start that has not been measured and that is not entered in time. It is expected by the regatia committee that there will be between twenty and twenty-five starters.

Two extra courses, triangular in shape, have been laid out off Newport, making four now that the committee can use. The two new courses are $5½ nautical miles in length, and one of these four makes it possible to get a windward leg no matter from what direction the wind blows. sloop Rainbow, H. F. WOMEN REIGN AT LARCHMON

WATER SPORTS ENTERTAIN LADIES DAY GUESTS.

Yachtsmen on Dress Parade Pay Attention to the Fair Visitors-New York A. C. Swimmers Provide Amusement -- Dancing in Theatre Ends a Day of Fun.

Every available inch of space on the lawns Every available into of space on the lawns in front of the Larchmont Yacht Club house was occupied yesterday afternoon and it is doubtful if there was ever a larger gathering there in the history of the club. It was ladies' day and the yachtsmen were a tentive to the fair sex. Launch and cutter races and aquatic sports had been arranged and the contests were theretexthere are larger of the contests. contests were thoroughly enjoyed. The weather was just right, perhaps a little coo for some of the diaphanous costumes that the women wore, but they looked pretty and so could stand a little discomfort. At any rate it was better than the torrid heat that so often makes things uncomfortable at Larch-mont. The yachtsmen all had on their regalia. Some were in blue and others, including W. B. Jenkins and Fleet Captain Morton W. Smith, were immaculate in white flannels.

It was the one day in the year when women reigned supreme at the clubhouse. In the afternoon the sports were arranged for their entertainment and in the evening there was the ball, and to get an invitation to the ball is the ambition of every girl who summers within automobile distance of the clubbouse. The dancing was in the theatre built on the lawn and the grounds were transformed into a fairy land. Thousands of fairy lights and Japanese lanterns were suspended from the trees. Fountains played a long the sea wall and on these multicolored lights were thrown which changed with kaleidoscopic effect. Colored lights were burned among the trees on the shore, and out in the harbor the fleet was illuminated, and the thousand and one lights danced lightly on the water, seem-ingly keeping time to the music from the clubhouse. It was a gay scene and one of the most successful entertainments of its kind ever given by this popular club.

Among those who were noticed some time during the day were Commodore Wilson Marshall and his aide, Fleet Captain Morton W. Smith, Vice-Commodore and Mrs. Fred-

Arrangements to Bow Cambridge Made Secretly and Varsity Men Surprised.

CAMBRIDGE, July 24.—The announce ment that Harvard was to row Cambridge, England, was received with genuine surprise on the part of Harvard men around here. The management perfected its ar-rangements very secretly and not until this morning did Harvard men know even that negotiations were under way. A sablegram received from London this morning states that the race has the sanction of the Cambridge graduates, a number of whom met in London yesterday to discuss the affair. Cambridge wishes to have the race rowed on Sepember 8, according to the cable, but the Englishmen do not insist on this date. The day for the race will not be definitely decided until the Harvard men reach the other side.

Capt. Filley has made no definite arrangements about training quarters. This question will be left with R. C. Lehman; Cambridge rowing man who coache the Harvard crew in 1897 and 1898,, and F. L. Higginson, captain of the '99 and 1900 crews of Harvard, who is now at the head of the firm of Higginson, Tottle & Co. in London. The Harvard shell will go abroad with Boat Builder Charlie Hart on the Canadian to-morrow. The Harvard oarsmen who are in this country will sain on Friday with Coach Wray and Dr. Mana-han, who will look after their physical welfare. The Harvard crew goes with the anction of the Harvard athletic committee, but the athletic association bears none but the athletic association bears none of the expense.

The carsmen will pay their own passage over and back and the expenses abroad will be met by a subscription among the graduates, all of whom are enthusiastic about the trip. Every one connected with Harvard rowing thinks that the race will do wonders for the sport at Harvard. It will give Coach Wray and Capt. Filley, who will be head of the graduate advisory committee next year, an excellent oppor-

who will be head of the graduate advisory committee next year, an excellent opportunity to study English rowing.

As to the chances of the Harvard crew little has been said here, but it is thought that Harvard's chances are good, though the Cambridge crew is a fast one. Harvard has the advantage of weight, the men weighing on the average 7½ pounds heavier than Cambridge. Little inference can be drawn from comparative times, as the conditions are much faster on the English Thames than the American. A number of Harvard men are already making arrangements to go abroad to see the race and all of the Crimson supporters who are on the other side will go to London for the race, so the American crew will be well backed with rooters.

In the 2:10 trot Walter Cox's drive with Gracie Kellar in the last heat excited the suspicion of the judges and they excited the suspicion of the judges and they declared all bets off and reserved decision so far as Cox was concerned.

The surprise of the day came in the 2:14 trot. when Nutboy, the favorite and one of the most sensational trotters out this season, who trotted in 2:11½ over a half mile track, was distanced in the first heat. The 2:15 pace was a sad blow to the talent, Vesto Boy, an outsider, taking the last three heats. Sir Dair, the favorite, got second money. The summary:

Models of Three Shamrocks Arrive.

Three models of the three Shamrocks arrived here yesterday on the steamship Minnehaha from London. They are for the New York Yacht Club and have been presented to that club by Sir Thomas Lipton. Last year's model committee worked very actively to get a complete set of models of all the yachts that have faced for the America's Cup, and Sir Thomas Lipton, appreciating the worth of such a collection, donated the models of the Shamrocks to the club through that committee. They are built to scale and are said to be the handsomest set of models ever made. Every detail of rig, hull and sail of the yachts is fully shown. The models are in three large glass cases and while on exhibition at the Royal Thames Yacht Club were very much admired. They will be valuable additions to the New York Yacht Club's collection, which is now the finest in the country. Models of Three Shamrocks Arrive.

Chase's Flight to the Plate Scores Only Run of Game—Clevelands Drop a Brace to Bostons and Leaders Smite the White Sex-Victory for the Washingtons.

Five games were played in the American League yesterday, and the Eastern teams won all of them. The New Yorks beat the Detroits again, while the crippled Clevelands suffered severely in Boston. They dropped a pair of games to the tallenders, who may have struck the long deferred brace. The leaders won from Chicago easily, and the Washingtons nosed out St. Louis. game at American League Park, Chase bore in a run for the New Yorks, the only one of the game. It was a duel in which the sparks flew, in which the pitchers were powerful with men on bases, and in which Newton outpitched Mullin. Newton was steadler than he ganerally is, and he was backed up well. So was Mullin, but the attack of the Detroits lacked the persistence, the finality of the New Yorks.

Chase is a will o' the wisp on the bases, and he streaked it to the plate a fraction of a second after Delehanty had been declared safe at first base, the two plays being interdependent. The play on Delehanty was close, and the Detroits howled over the decision. Mullin and two or three others gathered around O'Loughlin and fumed, Mullin being sent off the field. Griffith butted into the wrangle, objecting because another Detroit pitcher was warming up on the playing field. He reluctantly vamoosed when ordered to do so by the umpire.

The eighth inning was a hummer, pro and con. Jones was safe on an infield hit. He scooted to second on a wild pitch and with nobody out. On Schaefer's sacrifice he went to third. Crawford landed squarely on the ball, which tore toward right. Chase leaped sideways for the ball, stuck out his gloved hand and wrapped it around and heaved the ball to Williams, who had souttled to first for just such an emergency. He and the ball were on the spot shead of Crawford. A second smart play was in store. McIntyre walked, and he and Jones tried a double steal. Kleinow to Williams to Kleinow was the itinerary of a lightning play that extinguished Jones at the plate.

Chase hit to deep short in New York's half of the eighth and camped at first, although O'Leary made a scrumptious stop of the hit. Williams sacrificed, but Moriarity's fly to Crawford accomplished nothing. Schaefer jumped for Delehanty at first, however, and Lindsay threw home in an endeavor to intercept Chase. The throw was imperfect, and Chase slid over the pan. Moriarity made a rattling stop and throw of Coughlin's clout in the ninth, a

M'GINNITY PUNCHES PEITZ. New York Pitcher Afterward Arrested for

Fighting on Ball Field. PITTSBURG, July 24.—The third game of the New York-Pittsburg series was won by Pittsburg this afternoon, 4 to 3, but not until there had occurred on the ball field one of the most disgraceful fist fights ever seen on a Pittaburg field. Joe McGinnity, the New York pitcher, is under arrest to-night, charged ground before the players of either team could get to them.

They were finally pulled apart and the police took charge of each player, they being ordered off the field, of course, by Umpire O'Day, who was in charge. As McGinnity was being escorted from the field by the police, Superintendent of Police Glenn ordered the lieutenant of police in charge not to place McGinnity under arrest, but Mayor Charles Kirschler of Allegheny, who was in a box, stood up and shouted to the police: "Place that fellow under arrest and I'll make information against him."

McGinnity was arrested and was driven to the station in a patrol wagon. He was later charged with disorderly conduct by Mayor Kirschler and was released on ball. The affair caused the greatest excitement at the game, as the bad feeling between the two teams has been known for some time.

McGinnity wclaims that the trouble was started by Peitz repeatedly calling him a vile name.

New Yorks After Abbaticchio.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 24.—The New York Nationals have determined to strengthen Nationals have determined to strengthen their feam at any cost and have told Edward Abbaticchio, formerly of Boston, to practically name his own price if he will sign his name to a New York contract. Yesterday John T. Brush and John McGraw went to Latrobe, Pa., where "Batty" is now acting as manager of his father's big hotel. The champions have received permission from Boston to deal with the big player, who declared at the beginning of the season that he was through with baseball. While no one on the outside knows just what Brush and McGraw offered "Batty" if he would sign a New York contract, it is said that the price is higher than was ever offered to a player before. It was so high that the Italian has not turned it down and friends of his in this city believe that he cannot afford to do so. He promised Brush and McGraw that he would give them an answer in a few days. It is thought here that he will be with the New Yorks before the month is out.

CRICAGO, July 24.-James A. Hart, until & CEICAGO, July 24.—James A. Hart, until a few months ago the president of the Chicago National League Basebail Club, is to be made president of the old league in the near future. Harry Pulliam, tired of the cares of the office and unable to resist the fascination of the game, will become owner of the Boston league club.

Hugh Duffy, always a Boston idol, will be made manager of the Bostons, and will have a powerful nine to work with. James A. Hart when queried on the subject of the National League's official changes smiled and said that Mr. Pulliam would make the finest possible leader for the Boston team.
